

Irregular verbs

The past tenses of some verbs are irregular, and so we do not add "ed" to form the past tense. Instead, we change the word. For example, the past of "speak" is "spoke"; the past of "come" is "came" etc.

speak - spoke come - came break - broke wear - wore

write - wrote

get up - got up

stand - stood shine - shone drive - drove forget - forgot

see - saw sit - sat

eat - ate give - gave begin - began drink - drank

sleep - slept take - took tell - told

What's the past of "speak"? The past of speak is "spoke"

Which language did we speak during the last lesson?

We spoke English during the last lesson.

What's the past of "come"? The past of "come" is "came".

What time did you come here last lesson?

I came here at _____ last lesson.

What's the past of "break"?

The past of "break" is "broke".

Did you ever break an arm or a leg when you were a little child?

Yes, I broke an arm/a leg when I was a little child ~

No, I never broke an arm or a leg when I was a little child

CORE ED Stage 4

Copyright © 2013 by eTOC-surely work-All Rights Reserved イートックのレッスン以外で印刷及び使用禁止・法律で罰せられます。

English Teachers On Call

What did you wear yesterday?

I wore _____ Yesterday.

What time did you get up this morning?

I got up at _____ this morning.

Did we stand up after the last lesson?

Yes, we stood up after the last lesson.

Did the sun shine last week?

Yes, the sun shone last week

No, the sun didn't shine last week.

Did you tell me your name?

Yes, I told you my name.

Did you remember all the new words last lesson from the lesson before that?

No, I didn't remember all the new words last lesson from the lesson before that; some I remembered and some I forgot.

What did you see in this classroom last lesson?

I saw some books, some chairs, a teacher etc. in this classroom last lesson.

Where did you sit during the last lesson?

I sat _____ during the last lesson.

What did you eat for your lunch yesterday?

I ate some _____ for my lunch yesterday.

When did last season begin?

Last season began on _____.

What did you drink with your breakfast this morning?

I drank some _____ with my breakfast this morning.

How long did you sleep last night?

I slept _____ last night.