(H) You have 10 second to read the situation and Question No. 26. Welcome, everyone. Please join us in the main lobby for coffee and donuts following today's sermon. Speaking of food, our annual kids' picnic is next Sunday. Bring your children to the front lawn after church, and we'll walk to the park together from there. Also, we now provide a childcare service for kids under 6. If you wish to use this service, just drop your kids off on the second floor before 9:30. Finally, starting today, we'll be accepting donations of clothing for children in developing countries. Bring them to room 5 at any time. Thank you.

(I) You have 10 second to read the situation and Question No. 27. This afternoon, we have four options for visitors. Firstly, we have a 90-minute bus tour of the park, taking you through elk and bear habitats near Mount Blake. Alternatively, there's a guided hike through Wistman's Wood, focusing on the rare species that grow there. This takes a little over two hours. Thirdly, we have an hour-and-a-half exploration of the canyon. The guide will explain the unique vegetation found along the river. Finally, there'll be a lecture at the visitor center on the park's bird life. That will take an hour and 15 minutes.

Attention shoppers. We have a lot 5-year-oldboy. He's wearing a purple sweater and says his name is Charlie. He was found near Toys Paradise and is being looked after at the customer service desk. Could his parents please come and pick him up. As a reminder to everyone, children under 10 years old should not be left unattended in the play area on the mall's lower level. There's a childcare center available for shoppers on the upper level, which is open daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thank you for shopping at Mega Mall.

Since it's the start of the new semester, several club meeting will be held this week. Anyone interested in the speech contest should meet in the student lounge at noon on Wednesday. To find out about our movie club, there's a meeting on Friday. See the bulletin board tomorrow for the time and place. Students interested in the science club should meet in room 112 after school on Thursday. And remember, for any of these clubs, you need to fill in a registration form. This is available at the school office today and should be completed and returned by Friday.
