

Lesson 5: Make Them a Priority in Your Life

Vocabulary Practice:

Priority - something that is considered more important than other matters.	The president vowed to make education one of his top priorities.
Field trip - a visit made by students to study something away from their school or college.	The class went on a geography field trip.
Tutor - a teacher paid to work privately with one student or a small group.	She is my English tutor.

Dialogue Reading:

I need to prepare their things

Rita: Where are you going, Helen? Why are you in a hurry?

Mom: I need to go home because my little John will have a fieldtrip at 2PM.

Rita: Oh, I see. Are you coming back?

Mom: I do not know yet, because my Lena will come home early today for a home-study class with her tutor.

Rita: We will still have a review of the things the instructor discussed about baking cakes.

Mom: I will ask permission from the instructor if I can't come back in time. Otherwise I'm afraid I won't be able to come anymore.

Rita: Okay! I understand, your family is your first priority.

Mom: You know me, when it comes to my family. I want to give it my all.

Rita: Yeah, I know you well! You've been this way ever since college.

Mom: Haha! And that's why you're my best friend Rita.

Rita: The instructor is here now, go on and ask her permission.

Mom: Ok. Thank you so much. Just tell me what you did this afternoon later.

Rita: Of course, I'll do that.

Mom: Thanks a lot!
