

Lesson 1

1. Common Nouns

A common noun is a name which is used for all things of the same kind or class.

Ex. The name boy may be given to any and every boy such as to Mark, Dexter. It does not belong especially to one particular boy. It is common name to all boys. The name boy is therefore called a common noun.

Other examples of common nouns child, man, girl, cousin, teacher, friend, school, sea, river, town

2. Proper Nouns

A proper noun is the name of one particular person or thing.

Ex. Liza is a girl's own special name. It does not belong to all girls. The word "proper" means one's own. So the name Liza is called a proper noun. The name city is a common noun but the name "Baguio" which is special name of the city is a proper noun. A proper noun begins with a capital letter.

Common and proper nouns are sometimes called Concrete nouns. A concrete noun is the name of any material object that has the qualities that can be seen, touched, smelled, tasted like candy, box, stone, fruit, etc.
