

VI24 BANKING AND FINANCE

BEGINNER

NOTE: one dollar (buck), grand(one thousand dollars)

Chip in -----to contribute money

Pay back-----to return what is owed

Activity 1 Pronunciation Guide

Activity 2 Use in a sentence

BANKING AND FINANCE

INTERMEDIATE

Bounce a check-----to pay a check without having enough money available in the checking account

On credit-----without having to pay with cash or with a check at the moment of purchase (in the form of a credit card)

Take out-----to withdraw from one's account, to arrange a loan from a financial institution.

Pay off-----to finish making payments on

Activity 1   Phrase Drill

Activity 2   Let's talk

BANKING AND FINANCE

ADVANCED

Make out (a check)-to write and fill in a check

Bounce a check-----to pay a check without having enough money available in the checking account

On credit-----without having to pay with cash or with a check at the moment of purchase (in the form of a credit card)

Take out-----to withdraw from one's account, to arrange a loan from a financial institution.

Pay off -----to finish making payments on

NOTE: one dollar (buck), grand(one thousand dollars)

Chip in -----to contribute money

Pay back-----to return what is owed

Activity 1 Phrase Drill

Activity 2 Use in a sentence