

VI36 ADVICE

ASSISTANCE AND ADVICE

ADVANCED

all hands on deck

- everyone must work together because they have a lot of work to do
The captain called for all hands on deck as the storm became stronger and stronger.

go hand in hand (with something)

- to be closely related and must be considered together
The change in school hours goes hand in hand with the new policy of decreasing class sizes.

rub elbows (with someone)

- to work closely or associate with someone

I have been rubbing elbows with some very interesting people at work recently.

rub shoulders (with someone)

- to work closely or associate with someone

The sales manager rubs shoulders with some of the top business people in the city.

Activity 1: Practice using it in a sentence

Activity 2: Share real situations related to the topic

INTERMEDIATE

ASSISTANCE AND ADVICE

Pitch in-----to do one's share to help , to lend a hand.

Take under one's wing-----to adopt as one of the family, to train someone
The teacher took the student under her wing

Words of wisdom-----important ideas

Steer straight-----to provide with sensible advice for making the right choices in life

Sound out-----To sense how someone thinks or feels

Bum steer-----bad advice, poor recommendation

Activity 1: Practice using it in a sentence

Activity 2: Share real situations related to the topic

BEGINNER

ASSISTANCE AND ADVICE

Pitch in-----to do one's share to help , to lend a hand.

Sound out-----To sense or to feel how someone thinks

Bum steer-----bad advice, poor recommendation

Activity 1: Make a sentence
Activity 2: Picture Story