

Lesson 2: Get Connected with your Child

Vocabulary Practice:

Nap - a brief sleep, esp. during the day	When the children nap after lunch, their teachers will get a break.
Shout - to say something in a loud voice	"If anyone's up there," he shouted sternly, "come out now!"
Game - an entertaining activity, esp. one played by children, or a sports competition	The kids are playing a computer game.

Dialogue Reading:

Nap Time

- Mom: Ok, kids it's already 2PM. You have to take a nap now.
- Ann: I'm still watching my favorite TV show mom.
- John: I'm not yet done with my game too.
- Mom: So what time are you planning to take a nap?
- John: After I'm done.
- Mom: Oh! It's twenty past two, do you think it's the right time to take a nap, John?
- John: I know! I know!
- Mom: Are you shouting at me?
- John: No, I'm not!
- Mom: You aren't? It sounds like you are shouting. What about you Ann?
- Ann: I told you I want to finish watching my favorite TV show.
- Mom: Pardon me? You told me what?
- Ann: Ok. I got you mom, I'm sorry.
- Mom: Ok, twenty more minutes. If you don't take a nap right after then you can't watch TV nor play games tonight. Understood?
- Kids: Yes mom. We will.
