

16: Who travels with the U.S. President?

When the president travels, a lot of people go along. Air Force One is equipped to handle up to 100 people. And those people will be spending the majority of their time working. Here are some of the people who travel with the president:

★Teacher will ask this question first “Are there any words you don’t understand?” after explain those words, teacher will make some questions below each paragraph. And let him say the sentences according to your question. (If the student can’t make himself, you’ll make the sentences) And let him say it 3 times to memorize it.

- Personal attendants – personnel like the president's doctor and assistants

- Secret service – specially trained security members who are always on hand to protect the president

★

- White house staff - people who help with the business of the president, and who will get important work done during the trip

- Flight attendants - people who prepare and serve food, keep Air Force One clean and make sure all of the passengers on the plane are comfortable

- Journalists - professional journalists who regularly report on the president's activities wherever he or she is going

- Flight crew – people such as the pilot and co-pilot

All crew members are carefully screened military personnel, with exemplary service histories. Even the crew members who prepare meals must operate with a high level of security. For example, when buying food, they must hit the stores undercover, and they must select markets at random, in order to protect the president from a poison attack. On board the plane, the crew provides 24-hour first class service.
