

Volunteer Guides

Nowadays, many cities in Japan have volunteer guides. These guides show visitors around their hometowns and explain local history to them. Although showing people around may sound easy, volunteer guides must know a lot of information. This means they have to study hard. But being a guide is an interesting and enjoyable activity.

A

B

No.1 According to the passage, why do volunteer guides have to study hard?
(Because) they must know a lot of information.

No.2 Now, please look at the people in Picture A. They are doing different things. Tell me as much as you can about what they are doing.
A boy is feeding (some) birds./A woman is waving a flag./A woman is pointing at a map./Two men are shaking hands./A man is getting off a bus.

No.3 Now, look at the man and his daughter in Picture B. Please, describe the situation.
They want to use the (coin) locker, but the man doesn't have any coins [money/change].

Now, Mr./Ms. _____, please turn over the card and put it down.

No.4 Do you think students should do more volunteer activities?

Yes. → Why?

Doing volunteer activities is good for students. They can learn a lot by helping other people.

This document is for use in eTOC training sessions, use outside of eTOC is strictly prohibited.

No. → Why not?

I think students already do enough volunteer activities. They are too busy studying to do more volunteer activities.

No.5 There are many kinds of newspapers today. Do you usually read a newspaper?

Yes. → Why?

Reading a newspaper is very useful. I can get a lot of news and information every day.

No. → Why not?

I watch the news on TV every day. Watching the news is more interesting than reading a newspaper.