

Museum Activities

These days, a lot of museums offer people interesting activities to do. At some museums, people can experience lifestyles of the past, so they can understand history and culture better. Not only children but also adults enjoy doing these activities. More and more museums are becoming places where people can learn by doing.

No.1 According to the passage, how can people understand history and culture better at some museums?

By experiencing lifestyles of the past.

No.2 Now, please look at the people in Picture A. They are doing different things. Tell me as much as you can about what they are doing.

A woman is jogging [running]./ A girl is walking a [her] dog [taking her dog for a walk]./ A man is pushing a cart./ A man is taking off [putting on] his jacket./ A man is planting some flowers.

No.3 Now, look at the boy in Picture B. Please, describe the situation.

He wants to wash his hands, but there isn't any soap.

Now, Mr./Ms. _____, please turn over the card and put it down.

No.4 Do you think it is a good idea for schools to take their students to museums?

This document is for use in eTOC training sessions, use outside of eTOC is strictly prohibited.

Yes. → Why?

Students can enjoy many interesting things there. Going to museums is the best way to learn about science.

No. → Why not?

I don't think museums are useful for students. The explanations at museums are always difficult.

No.5 On weekends, many people enjoy buying or selling things at a flea market. Do you like to buy things at flea markets?

Yes. → Why?

We can find many kinds of things at flea markets. Also, they are usually much cheaper.

No. → Why not?

I like to buy new things from stores. I don't like things that have been used by other people.
