

Business Idioms

LESSON 5

Meeting(3)

make a motion

- to make a suggestion or proposal at a meeting

The manager made a motion to finish the meeting early and continue the next morning.

move to (do something)

- to propose to do something (usually at a meeting)

I moved to have another meeting next week when we can discuss the problem.

rule (someone) out of order

- to rule that someone is not following the rules of a meeting

The chairwoman ruled the salesman out of order when he began to speak at the meeting.

run a meeting

- to conduct a meeting

My boss is not able to run a meeting very well.